

Note: Personal Circumstances:

In the overall assessment of the applicant's potential, special personal or family circumstances must also be taken into account, such as illnesses and disabilities, caring for one's own children—particularly as a single parent—or close relatives in need of care, working in a family business, part-time work while studying, family background, or a migrant background.

Please include only relevant supporting documentation. Without supporting documentation, your information will not be considered. Examples include:

- Disability ID card
- Medical certificate confirming limited ability to study
- Proof of registration as a caregiver with the long-term care insurance fund
- Recognized refugee status

Under no circumstances should you submit medical diagnoses, medical reports, psychological evaluations, or similar documents!

You are welcome to submit a letter regarding your personal circumstances (working in a family business, part-time work while studying, family background, or immigrant background). Please limit your letter to 600 characters (including spaces).
